Prof. Dr. Stefan Kirsch, specialist lawyer for criminal law, enjoys an excellent reputation in advising and defending companies and individuals in all areas of white collar crime. In addition, he has more than twenty years of experience in appeals proceedings and international criminal law. He has appeared in three cases as defense counsel before the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) in The Hague and in another case before the Rwanda Criminal Court (ICC) in Arusha. In addition to the core areas of commercial criminal law such as fraud, breach of trust and corruption, his areas of practice include complex proceedings in a wide variety of areas of criminal law.

Before joining Klinkert Rechtsanwälte, Prof. Dr. Kirsch was a partner at HammPartner Rechtsanwälte. Prof. Dr. Kirsch is an honorary professor at the J.W. Goethe University in Frankfurt am Main and a member of the Criminal Law Committee of the German Bar Association (DAV). He has worked as an expert in projects of the Human Rights Institute (HRI) of the International Bar Association and the German Foundation for International Legal Cooperation (IRZ) and is a member of the advisory board of the "International Criminal Law Review".

Clients

When practicing criminal law, public attention should generally be avoided. Even in cases where mandates were the subject of press attention, it is not in the interest of the client to have the cases published again on their lawyer's website. We therefore refrain from mentioning clients and identifiable matters.
